

Chair Check-In

Happy Friday, my fellow Democrats!

Welcome to June! I hope you all have gotten your summer vacation plans sorted out and are having a great time enjoying the weather we've been having. I'll keep today's message short so you can focus on getting out into your weekend plans.

Let's just take a quick inventory of where we are as a state party: Our Governor continues to generate positive headlines with his outstanding work not just in Annapolis, but across the state. Our Lieutenant Governor seems to be meeting Marylanders in a different county every single hour, her work ethic and energy is contagious. And our Attorney General and Comptroller haven't taken a day or a minute off since they started, they're relentless. We promised a group of leaders that would work for you every day, and they've delivered for all of us.

Here at the party, our organizing and comms teams are already laying the groundwork for our 2024 efforts. This might be the calm before the storm, but believe me, this will be a hurricane of an election for the entire nation and we need to be prepared NOW for it. Our fundraising/finance team has been working diligently to make sure we have the resources - and our Political Director has been working tirelessly to make sure we have the infrastructure - to get as many Democrats elected as we possibly can here in Maryland. THAT is the goal. From the municipal to the state level, every single move we make each day has to be relevant to that goal: Get Democrats elected. Just a simple mission of working together to move Maryland forward.

We're coming off an incredible turnout for our AAPI event in Gaithersburg, and now we move forward to the biggest event of the year - our annual gala - that will celebrate our dear friend Steny Hoyer (And Leader Hakeem Jeffries will be joining us!). I could write a dozen of these letters just packed full of great Steny memories, but let me just say that he is a rare, genuine, authentic human being who belongs on a Mt. Rushmore of our state's political leaders. He has paved the way for countless young Marylanders who came after him simply wanting to make our state a better place. It's impossible to know the full extent of how far his positive influence has reached into the DNA of our state, but we will do our best to thank him and honor him.

While we prepare for the Gala, the best way we can honor Steny and all of the Maryland leaders who have inspired us is to stay together, stay on track, and head into the election cycle with an unbreakable, united front line.

Let's be great.

In Unity & Solidarity, Yvette Lewis

Today and every day we honor the memory of all the men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice while serving our great state and nation. We can never repay them for the sacrifices they have made, but we can honor them with our actions. We take today to reflect and remind ourselves that we are forever indebted to these service members and their families, and we strive to honor their memories each and every day.
