2020 DELEGATE SELECTION PROCESS

During the week of July 13, Democrats will convene in Milwaukee to nominate the next President of the United States. Maryland's delegation will include 119 delegates and 8 alternates. Participation in the Democratic delegate selection process is open to all voters who wish to participate as Democrats. The first determining step of the delegate selection process will occur on April 28, with a Primary as part of a Two-Part Presidential Primary.

MARYLAND'S NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATION:

- Will include 119 delegates (65 congressional district-level, 21 at-large, 23 automatic party leader and elected official [PLEO], and 10 pledged PLEO) and 8 alternates (subject to change pending final DNC approval)
- Will be divided equally between men and women (at the congressional district-level).
- Presidential candidates have the right to approve or disapprove all National Delegate Candidates.
- If presidential candidates fail to meet a 15% threshold of the primary vote, they will not be awarded any delegates.

Congressional District-Level Delegates

- Maryland is allocated 65 congressional district-level delegates.
- A congressional district-level delegate candidate may run only within the district in which they are registered to vote.
- To become a congressional district-level candidate, you must file a statement of candidacy to the State Board of Elections, 151 West St, Annapolis, MD 21401 between January 6 and January 24.
- Additionally, the Frederick, Charles, & Wicomico County Board of Elections may accept filings.
- Congressional district-level delegates will be elected on the ballot on Primary Day, April 28, based on the proportion of the vote won by the presidential candidate to whom they are pledged.

At-Large Delegates and Alternates

- Maryland is allotted 21 at-large delegates and 8 at-large alternates.
- An at-large delegate candidate may file a statement of candidacy to the State Party during regular business hours at 275 West St, Suite 305, Annapolis, MD 21401 between May 7 and May 14.
- At-large delegates and alternates shall be allocated among presidential preferences according to the state-wide primary vote, and will be selected by the MD Democratic State Central Committee at its May 30 meeting.
