

Chair Check-In

Hi Dylan,

Happy Monday, Democrats!

We're feeling really good right now. Let me tell you, it's been an especially remarkable time to be a Maryland Democrat.

Our great state (and beautiful downtown Rockville) hosted the leader of our party - President Joe Biden - last week and it was simply an incredible evening. The crowd was relentless, passionate, and LOUD all night. The energy just radiated from start to finish. Each speaker just kept bringing the energy and the crowd was engaged the whole time. It warmed my soul to see our party come together with so much joy.

I can't think of another time when we've had such an incredible collection of Maryland and DC talent from our party on one stage - POTUS, our next governor, our next comptroller, several members of our congressional delegation, one of our standout organizers, our national party chair, and so many more. But that's the point we want to drive home to our fellow Marylanders - for a party that gets excited of being in disarray every election season, WE have been incredibly united and energetic every single minute and every single day since the primary, and that only goes up from here. We fight, we unite, we leave no one behind.

And while it has been an amazing few weeks, we CANNOT get complacent. There are still more than two months to go. This week felt great, but we want November to feel even greater. That's the goal. We'll get there and we'll run right through the finish line. But we only do that if we keep up this pace. Bottle up that energy from Thursday night, add it to the big wins we've seen with the student debt relief and inflation reduction act, and carry this momentum forward. We need the best of us to have the GOP side on the ropes, but we can't underestimate them. Their anger and hate fuel them, and they won't go away quietly. Let's keep working and finish the job.

In Unity & Solidarity,
Yvette Lewis

"There's no feeling quite like the first day of school and this one carries a little extra magnitude. Our students and educators have battled through some tough adversity in the last few years, and we're very excited to see them back in action. We're so proud of this next generation of Marylanders and the selfless professionals educating them. We wish them the best today and every day." - Chair Yvette Lewis
